

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 79TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 17, 2005

TO: Honorable Frank Madla, Chair, Senate Committee on Intergovernmental Relations

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Deputy Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB734 by Williams (Relating to municipal regulation of the discharge of firearms and certain other weapons.), Committee Report 1st House, Substituted

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would prohibit a municipality from applying a regulation relating to the discharge of certain firearms or certain other weapons in the extraterritorial jurisdiction of the municipality or in an area annexed by the municipality. The bill would take effect immediately if it receives the required two-thirds vote in each house; otherwise, it would take effect September 1, 2005.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
