

Amend HB 3200 on third reading by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTIONS to the bill and renumbering subsequent SECTIONS of the bill accordingly:

SECTION __. Section 508.283, Government Code, is amended by amending Subsections (a) and (e) and adding Subsections (e-1), (f), (g), and (h) to read as follows:

(a) After a parole panel or designated agent of the board has held a hearing under Section 508.281, in any manner warranted by the evidence:

(1) the board may recommend to the governor to continue, revoke, or modify the conditional pardon; and

(2) except as provided by Subsection (g), a parole panel may continue, revoke, or modify the parole or mandatory supervision.

(e) If a person's parole or mandatory supervision is modified after it is established that the person violated conditions of release, the parole panel ~~[board]~~ may require the releasee to remain under custodial supervision in a county jail for a period of not less than 60 days or more than 180 days. The parole panel may require a person to remain under custodial supervision under this subsection each time the board modifies the person's parole or mandatory supervision.

(e-1) A sheriff is required to accept an inmate sanctioned under Subsection (e) [this subsection] only if the commissioners court of the county in which the sheriff serves and the Texas Department of Criminal Justice have entered into a contract providing for the housing of persons sanctioned under this subsection.

(f) If a person's parole or mandatory supervision is modified and the parole panel requires the person to serve a term of confinement and treatment in a substance abuse treatment facility operated under Section 493.009 as a condition of the modification, the term must be not less than 180 days and not more than one year. This subsection does not apply to a sex offender or an inmate under super-intensive supervision parole under Section 508.317(d).

(g) Except as provided by Subsection (h), a parole panel may not revoke a person's parole or mandatory supervision under this section if the person committed only an administrative violation of a condition of release.

(h) A parole panel may revoke a person's parole or mandatory supervision under this section if the person:

(1) has failed to report to the parole officer supervising the person for a period of at least one year; or

(2) is arrested outside of this state on a warrant issued under Section 508.251.

SECTION __. Subchapter I, Chapter 508, Government Code, is amended by adding Section 508.285 to read as follows:

Sec. 508.285. SANCTION: CONFINEMENT IN INTERMEDIATE SANCTION FACILITY. (a) After a hearing under Section 508.281, if a parole panel modifies a person's parole or mandatory supervision because the person violated the person's conditions of release, the panel may require the person to remain under custodial supervision in an intermediate sanction facility operated by or under contract with the department for a term of not less than 60 days or more than one year. This subsection does not apply to a sex offender or an inmate under super-intensive supervision parole under Section 508.317(d).

(b) A parole panel may require a person to remain under custodial supervision as described by Subsection (a) each time the panel modifies the person's parole or mandatory supervision.

SECTION __. The change in law made by Section 508.283, Government Code, as amended by this Act, and Section 508.285, Government Code, as added by this Act, applies only to a determination by a parole panel made on or after the effective date of this Act. A determination made before the effective date of this Act is covered by the law in effect on the date the determination was made, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose.
