1-15 HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1-16 WHEREAS, Throughout his life, Roy Houston Moore of Austin
 1-17 contributed in myriad ways to the advancement of the communities he 1-18 called home, and his passing on September 23, 2013, at the age of 1-19 81, brought a profound loss to the many people who were fortunate 1-20 enough to have known him; and

1-21 WHEREAS, The son of Lawrence and Lena Moore, Roy Moore was 1-22 born on August 30, 1932, in Brownwood and grew up on a farm on the 1-23 city's outskirts; after graduating from Brownwood High School in 1-24 1950, he enlisted in the United States Air Force and served his 1-25 country in the Korean War; he subsequently resumed his studies at 1-26 The University of Texas at Austin and graduated in 1958; and

1-27 WHEREAS, Mr. Moore enjoyed a distinguished career with 1-28 Southwestern Bell, working primarily in Houston; he devoted many 1-29 hours of service to civic organizations in the area, including the 1-30 Houston Chamber of Commerce and the Greater Houston Convention &
 1-31 Visitors Council, and he established a second home at his favorite 1-32 place on earth, Carancahua Bay, near Palacios; and

1-33 WHEREAS, After becoming a lobbyist for Southwestern Bell, 1-34 Mr. Moore moved to Austin; he quickly earned the respect and 1-35 friendship of many people at the State Capitol, and he continued to 1-36 excel in his duties until his retirement from the company in 1996;
 1-37 he went on to serve as president of Aquasource before fully retiring 1-38 in 2002; and

1-39 WHEREAS, Blessed with a fine family, Mr. Moore enjoyed a 1-40 rewarding marriage with his wife, Julie, and he was a proud and 1-41 caring father to his four children, Melinda, Michael, Patricia, and 1-42 Megan; an ardent supporter of UT Longhorn athletics, he seldom 1-43 missed an opportunity to see his alma mater's football, basketball, 1-44 and baseball teams in action; his other passions included golf and 1-45 fishing, and he could often be found on Carancahua Bay, where he 1-46 took special delight in introducing his grandchildren to the 1-47 wonders of reeling in a catch; and

1-48 WHEREAS, Roy Houston Moore was an engaged citizen and a man of 1-49 rare dedication and generosity, traits that won him the esteem of 1-50 countless fellow Texans; his memory remains strong in the hearts of 1-51 the friends and loved ones he left behind, and the naming of a reef
 1-52 near his home on the Gulf Coast will serve as a meaningful tribute
 1-53 to this admired and accomplished gentleman; now, therefore, be it

1-54 RESOLVED, That the 84th Legislature of the State of Texas
 1-55 hereby honor the life of Roy Houston Moore and recognize the reef
 1-56 that runs along the north side of the pier at 570 El Campo Beach Road
 1-57 in Calhoun County as Roy's Reef; and, be it further

1-58 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 1-59 prepared for his family and that when the Texas House of 1-60 Representatives and Senate adjourn this day, they do so in memory of

2-1 Roy Houston Moore.
