

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 84TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 27, 2015

TO: Honorable John T. Smithee, Chair, House Committee on Judiciary & Civil Jurisprudence

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB536 by Whitmire (Relating to the designation of certain prostitution prevention programs as commercially sexually exploited persons court programs.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would move Chapter 169A Health and Safety Code to Subtitle K, Title 2 Government Code. It would also reclassify "prostitution prevention programs" as "commercially sexually exploited persons court programs". The bill would permit local entities to apply to the Office of the Governor for grants for establishing commercially sexually exploited persons program. The bill would also require local entities to submit certain documentation and seek approval and verification from the criminal justice division of the Office of the Governor in establishing such programs.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.

Source Agencies:

LBB Staff: UP, FR, KJo