

Amend Amendment No. 24 by Vo to CSSB 482, on page 1, by striking lines 13-25, and substituting the following:

(b) A retail electric provider may not impose a late fee for payment for retail electric service that is mailed to the retail provider using the United States Postal Service if the payment is received not later than the third day after the date the payment is due.