** MEETING POSTPONED ****

The Senate Select Committee on Mass Violence Prevention and Community Safety hearing on March 10, 2020 has been postponed to a later date. Out of an abundance of caution given the recent public health events occurring around the globe, and to ensure that the committee has robust participation from the public on these critical issues, the committee has decided to move this scheduled hearing to a later date in the future. The committee apologizes for any inconvenience.
